WHAT DOES OUR ACCREDITATION MEAN TO YOU?

Whether you are joining a tour or travelling alone, it is important to travel with a Professional Travel Company that not only offers you a memorable holiday, but the peace of mind knowing that when you pay for your tour Trade Travel have Consumer Protection Policy in place to safeguard your funds.

AFTA

The Australian Federation of Travel Agents formed ATAS when the Travel Compensation Fund ceased operation on the 30th June 2014. The AFTA organization supports the Travel and Tourism industry and addresses major issues relating to the operation of all members in Australia on a State and Federal level.

CLIA

The CLIA (Australasia) Cruise Accreditation Program was established since 1996 and has become the industry benchmark for travel consultants wishing to develop extensive cruise industry knowledge and superior selling skills.

ATAS

This is a National Accreditation Scheme endorsing travel agents that have met strict financial and customer service criteria. ATAS was formed to give consumers piece of mind when choosing a Travel Agent.
